

THIS YEAR'S GUEST SPEAKER:
DR. MARK FOLEY
President, University of Mobile

Dr. Mark Foley has been the president of the University of Mobile since 1998. He has incorporated faith and leadership into the university as well as raising academic standards, building new residence halls, and establishing programs like the Center for Performing Arts and The College of Christian Leadership.

Currently, Dr. Foley is the chair of the Council of Presidents of the Southern States Athletic Conference and a member of the Board of Directors of Volunteers of America, Southeast, Inc.

Dr. Foley has a bachelor of business administration from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas, and a master of divinity and a doctor of philosophy in psychology and counseling from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.

His wife, Marilyn, participates in numerous university activities and holds a bachelor of science in education from Midwestern State University and is a former educator. Together, they have two children, Molly and Rob, and two grandchildren, Avery and Abby.
